Miss Corinne Bass, President
Southeastern Chapter, AALL
University of Mississippi Law School
University, Mississippi

Dear Corinne:

Enclosed is the annual report for 1955-56 for the Southeastern Chapter. I am sorry that this came to you late, but the delay was unavoidable since I was out of the office for a while with one of the innumerable viruses.

There are one or two items which I would like you to note, and if you feel they should be changed or omitted, please do so. In the next to the last paragraph I indicated that the failure to have a meeting last year was due to problems of transition to regional status. Should I mention this at all, and if so, is that a satisfactory reason? In the last paragraph, since we had no meeting and thus no election this year, it was necessary to give only you and me as officers. Is this an accurate view of the situation?

My suggestions for a nominating committee would be to choose them from the Duke-University of North Carolina area since all of these people know the membership of the Chapter well. This, however, is just a suggestion for what it is worth.

Please feel free to change the report in any way that you see fit.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Sarah
